Learning Lodge Academy, tops with logos can only be purchased through the specified vendor. Orders should be placed online. Visit the LLA website for a link to the specified vendor. Students should order a minimum of one t-shirt and one-collared navy blue polo. School logos are property of the school and marketing design company and therefore cannot be duplicated or replicated in any way, shape, or form without prior written consent from both the school and marketing company; and, may constitute dress code violation resulting in consequences.

All students should maintain a high standard for their appearance by following the dress code. Uniform clothing that shows wear (such as fading or stains) and/or tear (tattered or has holes) are considered dress code violations. Repeated dress code violations will require consequences that could include but is not limited to: warning, change of clothes, detention, loss of privilege, referral, and in-school suspension.

School appropriate t-shirts must be modest and consistent with school community standards. The Principal, or designee, shall have the final authority on what is “school appropriate”.

Freestyle Friday is a privilege that can be revoked at any time.
